Diocesan Cycle
of Prayer

February 2008

It has been a privilege to be involved in the training of Ordained Local Ministers (OLMs). Women and men whose vocation to ordained ministry has been recognised, and often initiated (from a human point of view), by their own church as part of a commitment to teamwork and 'every member ministry'. Once trained and ordained, OLMs continue to work as part of that team-orientated local church context (that is what makes them OLMs!).

Of course, all vocation comes from God, and not all vocation is to ordained ministry, OLM or otherwise. By virtue of our baptism we are all called and anointed to be disciples and ministers of the gospel. We are co-workers in the kingdom, all parts of the body of Christ - which is not just our own local church but the company of all faithful people. In short, we are all in this together!

This cycle of prayer is one way to recognise and do something about that 'togetherness'. Prompted by it daily, we think about and pray for each other. That means others are praying for you too; praying, perhaps, that you will know just what it is that God is calling you to do or be for him.

Martin Adams

Principal of OLM and Shared Ministry
